A-Z BIBLE SEARCH

Idol

When people do not want to hear
of Jesus and his love,
We continue to be faithful to reflect our God above.

So be kind in what you do,
and in the way you talk,
As humbly with Christ Jesus,
every day you walk.

Something that men love

Rejecting God above

We demonstrate to others
the value of God's way.
We show love by being faithful
in what we do and say.

We are God's representatives,
here upon the earth.
We are to show all people
that idols don't have worth.

There is only one God;
we are to worship him alone.
God says that through creation
he can easily be known.

Also, through the Bible
of him we are to learn.
That all men come to know him,
the heart of God does yearn.

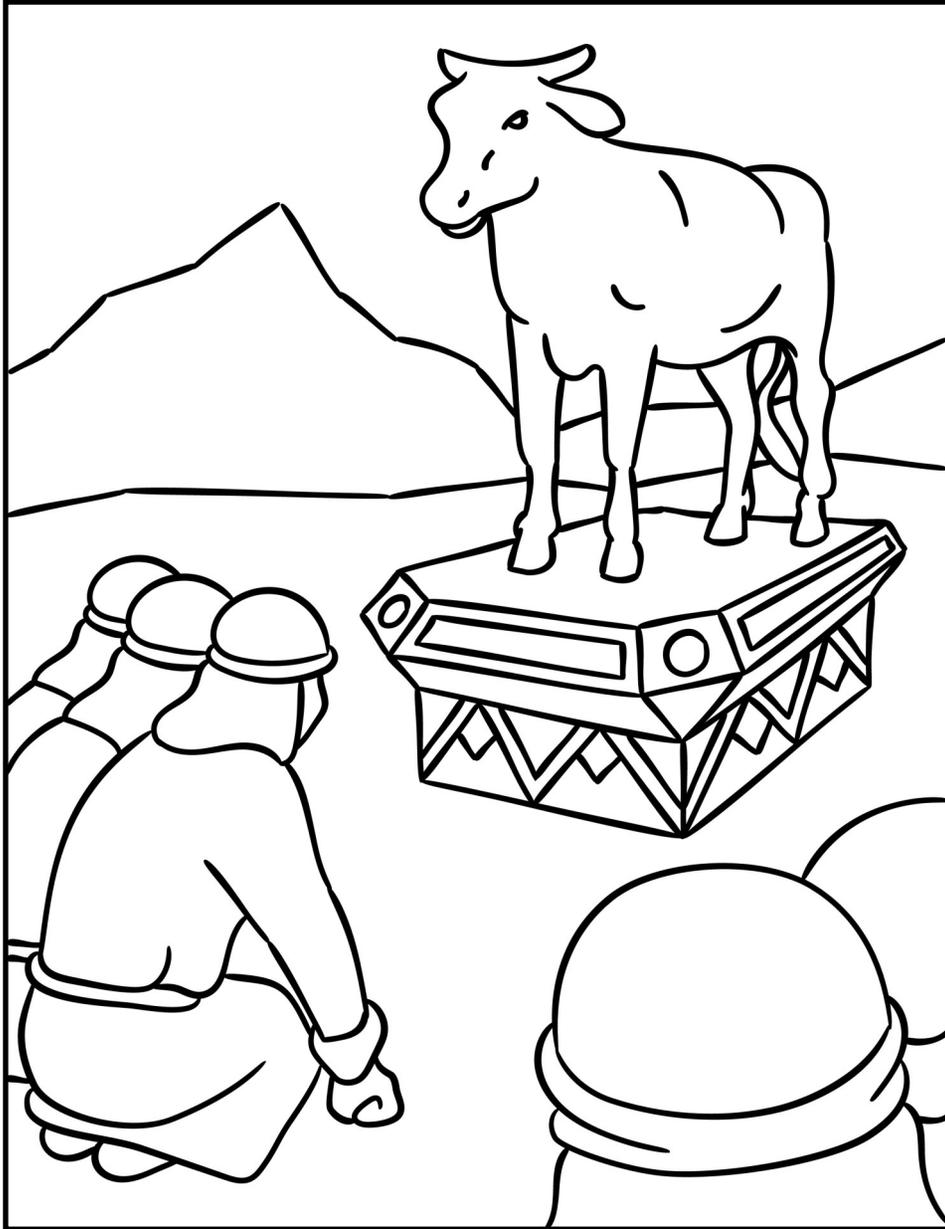

God wants all people on the earth
to know of his great love,
To turn away from idols,
and worship him above.

So we pray for people everywhere
who Jesus do not know,
And we send out missionaries
who around the world do go.

It is sad the one, true God
many people do not know,
Because it is through Jesus
that to heaven we will go.

Men don't want to see their sin;
they like to think they're good,
So they fail to worship God
in the way he says they should.

Idols are not always statues of wood or stone.
Sometimes people love too much,
themselves, their car, or phone.

Sometimes people worship people,
who of course one day will die,
Cause men can't take the place of God,
no matter how they try.

People throughout history
from the true God turn away;
To God they will not listen,
follow, or obey.

Men want to worship something,
so an idol they will make.
But an idol isn't God,
it is man-made and a fake.

An idol can be anything
that more than God we love.
Anything that takes our heart
away from God above.

An idol cannot love us
or save us from our sin.
An idol only sits there,
like Buddha with a grin.
