Let the students give their answers to the question.

LESSON CONTENT

Note: The Bible verses included in the lesson are from the NIV 1984 edition. The wording of the questions is derived from that version. If another version of the Bible is used, questions may need to be adapted.

What are the living things God has created so far in our study of Genesis? God has created all the plants on the earth, all the animals that live in water, all the birds and insects that fly in the sky, all the creatures that crawl on the ground and all the wild animals and livestock. What was the only living thing left to create? The only living thing left to create was man. (picture 16-1)

Genesis 1:26-27

²⁶Then God said, "Let us make man in our image, in our likeness, and let them rule over the fish of the sea and the birds of the air, over the livestock, over all the earth, and over all the creatures that move along the ground." ²⁷So God created man in his own image, in the image of God he created him; male and female he created them.

What was different about the creation of man from the other living things God created? Of all of God's creation, only man was created in the image of God.

What is an image? An image is a reflection or replica (copy) of something.

(picture 16-2) (Show Michelangelo's famous painting of the creation of Adam.) Is this an accurate depiction of the creation of man in the image of God? Michelangelo shows God in the form of a man. God is spirit and doesn't have a physical body so we know that man wasn't created in his physical image.

What then do you think it means to be created in the image of God? God is a personal God: he has a mind, he has a will and he has emotions or feelings. Since man was created in the image of God, he also has those characteristics and that is what makes him different from other animals. Man was also created to be able to reflect God's character, which is something animals cannot do.

What does having a mind enable people to do? Because we have minds, we can learn and understand ideas. We can discover new ways of doing things. We can be creative and inventive. We can communicate with words and pass on our understanding to others. We can know who God is and recognize our need for him. Animals can't do those things.

What is the difference between God's mind and man's mind? God has all wisdom and understanding; there is nothing he doesn't know. He has right thoughts about all things; he knows what is true. People have limited understanding and can be easily misled into believing what isn't true.

How does having a will affect people? Having a will means we can make moral choices. We can choose to follow God and do what is right or we can choose to reject God and do what is evil.

How are people different from animals that way? Animals don't have a will; they just follow their design. They act on instinct rather than making a choice of what is good or bad.

When a person does something really bad, like kill another person, you would say that he did something evil. If an animal kills a person, you might say that what happened was bad or awful but you wouldn't call the act evil because the animal didn't make a moral choice to kill.

What is the difference between God's will and man's will? God's will is perfect because he is holy and perfect. God only does what is good, right and true because he only wants what is good, right and true. He doesn't act out of selfish interests. Man's will tends to be very self-centered; people often act out of selfish interests.

How does having emotions/heart affect people? Having emotions means that we have feelings; we can feel love or hate, happiness or sadness, joy or sorrow, hope or despair. Our emotions affect the way we think about and respond to things. Sometimes the way we feel can make us more compassionate toward others. Sometimes we harden our hearts and become angry and resentful.

What is the difference between our emotions and God's emotions? God responds to people and situations in a right manner, he sees them as they really are. God knows and understands all things so his emotions are always right and justified; they are always appropriate; the way they should be. Like our will our emotions are generally self-focused.

How can our emotions affect our thinking? Our emotions can cloud our thinking so we don't view situations or people clearly; we don't see things the way they really are. We see everything from our own perspective. Our emotions aren't always appropriate; we often respond to people or situations in inappropriate ways. Sometimes we throw a fit when things don't go our way or make fun of others who seem a little odd.

Because we are created in God's image, we were designed to reflect God's character. What does it mean to reflect God's character? If we know God and choose to love and fear him, we can reflect his love, kindness, justice, compassion, etc., to others in what we say and do.

How are we able to reflect God's character? To reflect God's character, we have to give our lives to Jesus and be filled with his Spirit. We then can have a personal relationship with God and bring delight to him as we submit our mind, will and emotions to him. Our desire as Christians should be to reflect God's image and live in a way that pleases and honors God.

Deuteronomy 10:12-13 says, ¹² And now, O Israel, what does the LORD your God ask of you but to fear the LORD your God, to walk in all his ways, to love him, to serve the LORD your God with all your heart and with all your soul, ¹³ and to observe the LORD's commands and decrees that I am giving you today for your own good?

What does it mean to fear the Lord? To fear the Lord means that we know who God is, that he knows and sees everything we do and we are accountable to him for our thoughts, words and actions.

How do we show we fear the Lord? We submit ourselves to God's authority and go his way. We worship and honor him.

Why should we love and fear God? It is what we were created to do. It is the only way we can reflect God's image and bring him glory and honor. It is the only way to live a good life and experience God's blessing.

LESSON WRAP-UP

- Overview Questions: What does it mean to be created in the image of God? What does it mean to have a mind? A will? Emotions? What is the difference between God's mind and man's mind? God's will and man's will? God's emotions and man's emotions? How can a person reflect God's character?
- Thought Questions: What do you think are God's feelings currently about the people he created in his image? Why? Did God know that people would reject him when he created the first man? Why do you think he created people in spite of knowing that they would reject him? Why is it beneficial for a person to reflect God's character?

- The Big Question: How are we to reflect God's image?
Let the students give their answers to the question. Share the memory verse. Ask how it answers the question.

Questions: What does God ask of us? Why does God want us to do those things?

ACTIVITIES (Completed after the lesson)

Any age appropriate activity can be included which fits into the class time. The activities with a star are included on the class notes.

- ★ Lesson Notes: Have the children answer the two questions individually or as a group.

What did you learn from this lesson? How can you put into practice what you learned?

- ★ Memory Verse: Read the memory verse on the cover of the class notes and then have the students fill in the blanks in the verse.

★ Activity Page: Attributes of God Crossword Puzzle

★ This Week's Big Question: Have the students fill in the blanks for the way the memory verse answers the big question.

We are to walk in God's ways and serve him.

★ Coloring Page: Color the lesson picture.

• Craft: In the Image of God Mirror

As a reminder that man was created in the image of God and that you are to reflect God's character, make a mirror.

Materials: card stock paper, heavy-duty aluminum foil or mirror craft paper, tape, scissors

Preparation: Run off craft 16 on cardstock paper.

Instructions:

1. Cut out the center of the rectangle to make a frame for the mirror. Insert the point of the scissors where the lines cross. Cut along diagonal lines then cut along the inside edges of the frame.
2. Decorate and color the letters on the frame.
3. Tape a piece of heavy duty foil behind the hole to make the mirror. Fold the paper in half so the poem is on the back.

• Lesson Poem – Created in the Image of God

I have a mind so I can think and learn about what's true.

I have a heart and I can feel God's goodness flowing through.

I have a will to tell my hands what's right for them to do.

In loving Christ I use them all to reflect God back to you.

- Game: Seeing Stars

As a reminder of the attributes of God, play a version of Hangman called "Seeing Stars." Instructions: On the board mark out the right number of lines to represent the letters in one of the attributes of God listed below. Divide the group into two teams. Each team takes a turn guessing a letter that is in the word. If they get the letter wrong, they get a line of a five-pointed star. The first team to "see a star" is out and the other team gets to keep playing until it either gets to "see a star" or guess the word. A team may only guess the word on its turn after it has picked a letter. If a team guesses the word right, it gets a point. The team with the most points wins.

1. righteous (9)
2. truthful (8)
3. faithful (8)
4. good (4)
5. protector (9)
6. just (4)

7. longsuffering (13)
