REVIEW (Before Teaching Lesson)

- Journal Review: Ask students to share an important truth that they learned from their journal readings at home that week. Share some of your own insights.
- Previous Lesson Review: (Use the visual from the last lesson to aid in review) What did God do on the seventh day of creation? What does God want man to do on the Sabbath? What day of the week is the Christian Sabbath? Why? What day of the week is the Jewish Sabbath? Why? How do we honor God on the Sabbath?
- The Big Question Review: What is the Sabbath?
Let the students give their answers to the question.
- Bible Verse Review: Exodus 20:11
On the seventh day of creation, God rested and called it holy?

<sup>11</sup>For in six days the LORD made the heavens and the earth, the sea, and all that is in them, but he rested on the seventh day. Therefore the LORD blessed the Sabbath day and made it holy.

LESSON CONTENT

Note: The Bible verses included in the lesson are from the NIV 1984 edition. The wording of the questions is derived from that version. If another version of the Bible is used, questions may need to be adapted.

This is a good point in the study of Genesis to pause and ponder the question, "How should we respond to God?" What have you learned so far through this study of Genesis? Let the children give their answers.

When we think of where God dwells where do we look? (picture 21-1) The heavens. From earth we can look out into the sky and see other parts of God's creation.

If God is everywhere, why do we think of him in the heavens? The Bible speaks of him as dwelling in heaven as a spiritual place. In the physical realm, there is something about the vast expanse of the sky or heavens that speaks of God. It is unsearchable, uncontainable and mysterious. It can't be known by people; it is beyond our ability to comprehend. However, we need to remember that every part of creation is known by God, he calls each of the stars by name. We are finite, he is infinite. There is something about what is beyond earth and the great expanse of the universe that points to the vastness of who God is. We are going to read Psalm 33:1-15 to gain greater understanding of and appreciation for our awesome God who created all things in order to answer the question, "How should we respond to God?"

Vs. 1-9

<sup>6</sup>By the word of the LORD were the heavens made, their starry host by the breath of his mouth. <sup>7</sup>He gathers the waters of the sea into jars; he puts the deep into storehouses. <sup>8</sup>Let all the earth fear the LORD; let all the people of the world revere him. <sup>9</sup>For he spoke, and it came to be; he commanded, and it stood firm.

How should all the earth respond to the Lord? (vs.8) All the earth is to fear and revere the Lord.

Why should all the earth fear and revere God? God is faithful and loving in all he does. He is the creator of all things and is the one who holds all things together. He is sovereign over his creation.

What does it mean to revere God? If we revere God that means that we esteem him and recognize that he is God. We don't think of ourselves as being his equal. We give ourselves to him to serve and honor him.

Vs. 10-11 These verses show the sovereignty of God.

<sup>10</sup>The LORD foils the plans of the nations; he thwarts the purposes of the peoples. <sup>11</sup>But the plans of the LORD stand firm forever, the purposes of his heart through all generations.

What does it mean that God is sovereign? God rules over all his creation and what he plans will come to pass. Man is not in charge, he is under God's authority.

How do these verses show God is sovereign? It is God's plans and purposes that will come to pass, not ours.

Vs. 12-15 These verses show what it means to fear God.

<sup>13</sup>From heaven the LORD looks down and sees all mankind; <sup>14</sup>from his dwelling place he watches all who live on earth-- <sup>15</sup>he who forms the hearts of all, who considers everything they do.

What does it mean to fear God? If we fear God we recognize who he is and understand that we are under his authority and accountable to him for the things we do. God watches over his creation and knows everything we do. One day we will answer to God for how we have lived our lives and responded to him. Our choice is either to believe God and submit to him and his purposes or to reject God and go our own way.

What does submitting to God do for us? Submitting to God puts us in right relationship to him. It is the way of blessing and joy. Rejecting God makes us at odds with him; it puts us on a destructive downward path.

Psalm 147:10-11 says, "the LORD delights in those who fear him, who put their hope in his unfailing love." Since God delights in those who fear him it would be good for us to examine further what the fear of the Lord means.

To do this we will associate each letter of the word fear with an action of what the fear of the Lord means we do. (As you go through each action have the younger children think of a movement to do that will remind them of what it means to do. Ideas are in parenthesis.) (picture 21-2)

F Fix mind on God (Brain, Touch temples then lift hands up.)

What does it mean to fix our mind on God? If we fix our minds on God, we think about him and his truth because we know that through him we gain understanding about the way to live life and honor him.

E Enfold God's truth (Bible, Put hands together in front like a book. Then cross arms in front of body.)

Enfold means to completely surround something. What does it mean to enfold God's truth? If we enfold God's truth then we meditate on God's word so that it fills our minds. If God's truth is enfolded into our thinking and becomes part of us then we will follow it even if no one else does.

A Accept God's authority (Throne or gavel, Raise one arm and make a fist. Bring the fist down on the other hand.)

What does it mean to accept God's authority? If we accept God's authority, we recognize the right God has to rule over us. We honor God as our King and Lord and want to do what pleases him. We recognize his sovereignty and obey him.

R Render self to God (Praying figure, Bow head and fold hands in prayer.)

Render means to give yourself over to something. What does it mean to render ourselves to God? If we render ourselves to God we give ourselves to him and see ourselves as his servants. When we render ourselves to God we want to serve and honor him. We yield to him and his authority.

The Bible says that the fear of the Lord is the beginning of wisdom. If we fear God then we will: fix our minds on him, enfold his truth into our lives, accept his authority and render ourselves to him. Doing those things will make us wise as we will do what is right and good. It is good to know God, fear him and gain wisdom. That is a proper response to God and is the key to living life well.

Isaiah 33:5-6 says, The LORD is exalted, for he dwells on high; he will fill Zion with justice and righteousness. He will be the sure foundation for your times, a rich store of salvation and wisdom and knowledge; the fear of the LORD is the key to this treasure.

(Note: Originally Zion was the fortified stronghold in the southernmost hilltops of Jerusalem. In the Old Testament prophecies, it referred to Israel and all her inhabitants. In the New Testament the meaning has been extended to include all the people of God.)

What does it mean that God is a sure foundation for our times? A foundation is what gives stability to a building. God is stable and unchanging. His truth will never fail. If we build our lives on him, we will have the wisdom and understanding we need to live life well even if everything around us is crumbling and falling down. The fear of the Lord is the key to all that.

LESSON WRAP-UP

- Overview Questions: Why are people who know God blessed? Why are we to praise God? Why are we to fear God? Why are we to revere God? What does it mean that God is sovereign?
- Thought Questions: If we fear God, what will we do? Why? What keeps people from fearing God? If we revere God, what will we do? Why? What keeps people from revering God? If we trust God, what will we do? Why? What keeps people from trusting God? If our hope is in God, what will we do? Why? What keeps people from putting their hope in God?
- Prayer: Thank God that he is the Almighty Creator who loves and rules over his creation. Pray that you would learn what it means to fear and revere God and love him with all your heart. Thank him that he knows and sees all that goes on in the earth and takes care of those who fear and trust him.
- The Big Question: Why should we fear God?
Let the students give their answers to the question. Share the memory verse. Ask how it answers the question.

- Memory Verse: Isaiah 33:4-5 The fear of the Lord is the key to salvation and wisdom.

(The LORD) is exalted, for he dwells on high; he will fill Zion with justice and righteousness. He (will be the sure foundation for your times, a rich store of salvation and wisdom and knowledge; the fear of the LORD is the key to this treasure.)

Questions: What will God do for Zion? What does it mean that God is a sure foundation for our times? What is God a rich store of? What is the key to that treasure?

ACTIVITIES (Completed after the lesson)

Any age appropriate activity can be included which fits into the class time. The activities with a star are included on the class notes.

- ★ Lesson Notes: Have the children answer the two questions individually or as a group.

What did you learn from this lesson? How can you put into practice what you learned?

- ★ Memory Verse: Read the memory verse on the cover of the class notes and then have the students fill in the blanks in the verse.

- ★ Activity Page: Word Search

Instructions: Find verbs in the puzzle that are things God does for those who fear him: protects, provides, blesses, saves, prospers, helps, listens, watches.

- ★ This Week's Big Question: Have the students fill in the blanks for the way the memory verse answers the big question.

The fear of the Lord is the key to salvation and wisdom.

- Craft: Tambourine

As a reminder that the fear of the Lord is the key to the treasure of salvation and wisdom and we are to worship him, make a tambourine. Tambourines have often been used in worship.

Materials: Card stock paper or two small paper plates per child, beans or rice, scissors, crayons, decorations, stapler

Preparation: Run off craft 21 on card stock paper or use small paper plates.

Instructions:

1. Cut out around outside black line of the two circles (or use two small paper plates).
2. Decorate circles/plates by coloring or with sequins or foam shapes.
3. Put the two circles/plates together and staple edges close together almost all the way around to leave an open space.
4. Put beans/rice in through the open space and then staple shut.

- Game: Treasure Hunt

As a reminder that the fear of the Lord is the key to the treasure of salvation and wisdom, go on a treasure hunt.

Instructions: Hide cards with the memory verse on them for each child to find one. A card that is found can be exchanged for a "treasure" or piece of candy if the child can say the memory verse.

JOURNAL

The journal is passed out at the end of class for the students to complete at home. It has six poetic readings and related Bible verses. It would be beneficial for the teacher to read through and be familiar with its content.
