What is God's design for marriage?

Page 2

Marriage God designed to join a husband to a wife.

It's a special union
that is to last for life.

And when a wife and husband
treat each other right,

They reflect to all the world
God's goodness and his light.

A man must leave his parents;

a wife will leave hers too.

Together they will form

a family that is new.

God says that in a marriage,

man and woman are as one.

Once they're joined in marriage

a new family is begun.

Page 4

The role of leadership

God has given to the man,
And the woman is to help him
in every way she can.

When couples do what is right
life will go quite well.

God's plan for a family
is something really swell.

Page 5

The family is the place where children learn and grow.

Parents are to train their kids
so God's way they will know.

The children are to listen
and do what parents say.

It is God's command
that their parents kids obey.

God's design for marriage

is something very good

And a family honors God

when it functions as it should.

When God created Adam,
he was all alone,
So God put him deep to sleep
and took from him a bone.
From Adam's rib God made Eve
so he would have a wife.
God wanted them to marry
and live a happy life.
