Lesson Passage—Genesis 9:18-29

¹⁸ The sons of Noah who came out of the ark were Shem, Ham and Japheth. (Ham was the father of Canaan.) ¹⁹ These were the three sons of Noah, and from them came the people who were scattered over the earth.

²⁰ Noah, a man of the soil, proceeded to plant a vineyard. ²¹ When he drank some of its wine, he became drunk and lay uncovered inside his tent. ²² Ham, the father of Canaan, saw his father's nakedness and told his two brothers outside. ²³ But Shem and Japheth took a garment and laid it across their shoulders; then they walked in backward and covered their father's nakedness. Their faces were turned the other way so that they would not see their father's nakedness.

²⁴ When Noah awoke from his wine and found out what his youngest son had done to him, ²⁵ he said, "Cursed be Canaan! The lowest of slaves will he be to his brothers."

²⁶ He also said, "Blessed be the LORD, the God of Shem! May Canaan be the slave of Shem. ²⁷ May God extend the territory of Japheth; may Japheth live in the tents of Shem, and may Canaan be his slave."

²⁸ After the flood Noah lived 350 years.

²⁹ Altogether, Noah lived 950 years, and then he died.

Through God's word we discover what is right and true.
Then we live it out in all we say and do.

LESSON 33

THIS WEEK'S BIG QUESTION

What is the result of honoring parents?

LESSON RHYME

H—H—Honor

Parents, children should obey

H—H—Honor

Show respect in every way

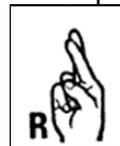

Level 2—Parent Notes:

- Daily Reading: Read the entire booklet to the child. Go back to the appropriate day, reread the content and have the child answer questions about it from the Daily Reading Questions at the back of the booklet. Include personal ideas and additional questions. Read and discuss the daily Bible verse if appropriate for the child. Have the child draw a picture related to the content.
- Lesson Rhyme: Read the Lesson Rhyme on the next page, saying the sound of the letter instead of its name. Point to each word as you read it. Discuss the meaning of the rhyme. Have the child trace the letter with a finger and say its sound. Practice with the child the signs that go along with the Lesson Rhyme (included below). Review and repeat the rhyme every day.
- Concluding Lesson: Complete the activities under Concluding Lesson at the back of the book.
- Completion: If the student brings this booklet back to the teacher on Sunday, with each day's work completed and the lesson rhyme memorized, the student will receive acknowledgement of a job well done.
- Way to go, parents! Your faithfulness in teaching your children the deed and statutes of the Lord isn't always easy, but it honors God and will have an eternal impact. Keep up the good work! Remember Galatians 6:9, Let us not become weary in doing good, for at the proper time we will reap a harvest if we do not give up.

This week I learned

Concluding Lesson

Review: What are parents to do for their children? Why are they to do that? How should children treat their parents? What does it mean to honor? Why are parents wiser than children? Why should you obey your parents the first time they tell you to do something?

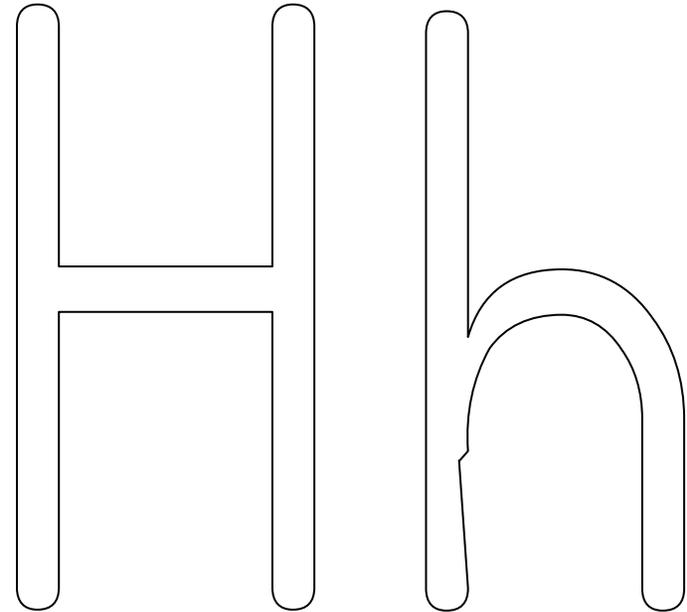

Prayer: Thank God for the parents he has given you. Pray that you would want to obey and honor them as you should. Pray that you would obey and honor God as you should Application: Discuss ways that you are obedient to your parents and ways that you are disobedient. What is the difference in the outcomes when you obey or disobey your parents?

Dictation: Have the child dictate what important truth was learned from the lesson. Have the child repeat back the dictation, trace over the letters and draw a picture to go with it.

#33

How should children honor their parents?

H—H—Honor

Parents, children should obey

H—H—Honor

Show respect in every way

Day 1

Draw a picture of your family.

God gives children parents
to help them learn and grow.
Honor to their parents
children are to show.
Parents train their children
to submit to God above
So their children follow God
and experience his love.

Day 6

Draw a picture of your house and family.

Thank God for your family
and the home where you do live.
Be sure to thank your parents
for all that they do give.
And make your parents happy
by choosing to do right.
Obeying their instructions and walking in God's light.

Ephesians 6:4: ⁴ Fathers, do not exasperate your children; instead, bring them up in the training and instruction of the Lord.

Proverbs 4:20-22: ²⁰ My son, pay attention to what I say; listen closely to my words. ²¹ Do not let them out of your sight, keep them within your heart; ²² for they are life to those who find them and health to a man's whole body.

Day 5

Draw a picture of a treasure chest.

Parents are much wiser.
They know what's right and good.
So follow what they say
and act the way you should.
Be sure to obey them,
the first time you are told.
Honoring them brings treasure
more valuable than gold.

Day 2

Draw a picture of you listening to your parents.

God commands the parents
to teach his laws and deeds.
As children put their trust in God,
he will meet their needs.
Our greatest need is to love God
and follow in his way.
And children learn to do this
as their parents they obey.

Proverbs 4:7-8: ⁷ Wisdom is supreme; therefore get wisdom.
Though it cost all you have, get understanding. ⁸ Esteem her,
and she will exalt you; embrace her, and she will honor you.

Psalms 78:4-5: ⁴ We will not hide them from their children; we will tell the next generation the praiseworthy deeds of the LORD, his power, and the wonders he has done. ⁵ He decreed statutes for Jacob and established the law in Israel, which he commanded our forefathers to teach their children,

Day 3 Draw a picture of your family playing together.

When children honor parents,
life goes really well.
Cause when we do what's right,
God with us will dwell.
So remember to do good
and your parents to obey.
Submit to them and honor them
each and every day.

Day 4 Draw a picture of your father talking to you.

When you respect your parents,
happy God you make.
And you will keep from making
many a mistake.
So do not be rebellious
and follow your own way.
But please the Lord your God,
by obeying what they say.

Ephesians 6:1-3: ¹ Children, obey your parents in the Lord, for this is right. ² "Honor your father and mother"—which is the first commandment with a promise— ³ "that it may go well with you and that you may enjoy long life on the earth."

Proverbs 4:5-6: ⁵ Get wisdom, get understanding; do not forget my words or swerve from them. ⁶ Do not forsake wisdom, and she will protect you; love her, and she will watch over you.
