Lesson Passage—Genesis 7:11-23

¹¹In the six hundredth year of Noah's life, in the second month, the seventeenth day of the month, on that day all the fountains of the great deep were broken up, and the windows of heaven were opened. ¹²And the rain was on the earth forty days and forty nights.

¹³On the very same day Noah and Noah's sons, Shem, Ham, and Japheth, and Noah's wife and the three wives of his sons with them, entered the ark— ¹⁴they and every beast after its kind, all cattle after their kind, every creeping thing that creeps on the earth after its kind, and every bird after its kind, every bird of every sort. ¹⁵And they went into the ark to Noah, two by two, of all flesh in which is the breath of life. ¹⁶So those that entered, male and female of all flesh, went in as God had commanded him; and the LORD shut him in.

¹⁷Now the flood was on the earth forty days. The waters increased and lifted up the ark, and it rose high above the earth. ¹⁸The waters prevailed and greatly increased on the earth, and the ark moved about on the surface of the waters. ¹⁹And the waters prevailed exceedingly on the earth, and all the high hills under the whole heaven were covered. ²⁰The waters prevailed fifteen cubits upward, and the mountains were covered. ²¹And all flesh died that moved on the earth: birds and cattle and beasts and every creeping thing that creeps on the earth, and every man. ²²All in whose nostrils was the breath of the spirit of life, all that was on the dry land, died. ²³So He destroyed all living things which were on the face of the ground: both man and cattle, creeping thing and bird of the air. They were destroyed from the earth. Only Noah and those who were with him in the ark remained alive.

LESSON 30

CREATION AND THE BEGINNING OF HUMAN HISTORY

THIS WEEK'S BIG QUESTION

What will happen to evil men?

MEMORY VERSE

Psalm 37:1-2

(Do not fret because of evildoers,
Nor be envious of the workers of iniquity.
²For they shall soon be cut down like the grass,
And wither as the green herb.)

Thinking It Through

Level 3—Parent Notes:

- Daily Reading: Depending on the age and ability of the child, or parent preference, the child may do the work in this journal independently or read with and dictate an answer to the parent. After reading the day’s rhyme and the Bible verse, the child should draw a picture that relates to that day’s reading and answer the question at the bottom of the page. Have the child answer questions about the day’s reading from the Daily Reading Questions at the back of the booklet. Personal ideas and additional questions from the parent can also be included.
- Lesson Verse: The lesson verse which answers the week’s big question should be practiced daily. One way to do this is to black out words in the verse each day and say the verse inserting the correct word. By the end of the week the whole verse would be blacked out and recited by memory. Depending on the age and/or ability of the child, either the whole verse or the part of the verse between brackets on the cover can be memorized.
- Concluding Lesson: The parent should discuss with the child the Thinking it Through questions: What important truth did you learn this week? How can you apply that truth in your life? After discussing the questions the child should write down (or dictate to the parent) the answers and a prayer at the end of the booklet. The child can then complete the other activities.
- Completion: If the student brings this booklet back to the teacher on Sunday, with each day’s work completed and the lesson verse memorized, the student will receive acknowledgement of a job well done.
- Way to go, parents! Your faithfulness in teaching your children the deed and statutes of the Lord isn’t always easy, but it honors God and will have an eternal impact. Keep up the good work! Remember Galatians 6:9, Let us not become weary in doing good, for at the proper time we will reap a harvest if we do not give up.

The important truth I learned this week is:

I can apply that truth by:

My prayer to God is:

Daily Reading Questions

Day 1: Why did God send a flood to cover the earth? What makes something evil? Where did the water come from? What happened to Noah and his family in the flood?

Day 2: How long did it rain? How much water was there on earth? What happened to the ark during the flood?

Day 3: What happened to living things? What were they turned into?

Day 4: What kept Noah and his family safe? Why did God wipe everything else out?

Day 5: What does catastrophic mean? How was the flood catastrophic?

Day 6: What is the choice of every person? What will God do for those who

Concluding Lesson

Review: Why did God send a flood to cover the earth? Where did the water come from? What happened to Noah and his family in the flood? How long did it rain? How much water was there on earth? How was the flood catastrophic?

Prayer: Thank God that he watches over those who love and follow him. Pray that you would stand for what is right and good like Noah did.

Application: Discuss what would have happen if God had not sent the flood.

Thinking It Through: Have the child write or dictate what important truth was learned from the lesson, how he/she can apply that truth, and a prayer to God.

#30

What will happen to evil men?

Evil men will die away.

Day 1

Draw a picture of Noah and his family.

When evil filled the earth,
God determined it would end.
God said a flood of water
to destroy the earth he'd send.
Noah and his family
in the ark were safe and sound.
As the water poured from heaven
and sprang up from the ground.

What does the verse mean?

Genesis 7:6-7: ⁶ Noah was six hundred years old when the floodwaters were on the earth. ⁷ So Noah, with his sons, his wife, and his sons' wives, went into the ark because of the waters of the flood.

Day 6

Draw a picture of you reading the Bible.

God will save the righteous
who listen to his voice.
To follow good or evil
every person has a choice.
So choose to be like Noah,
who did everything God said.
Love God with all your heart
and keep his truth inside your head.

What does the verse mean?

2 Peter 2:5, 9: ⁵ If God did not spare the ancient world, but saved Noah, one of eight people, a preacher of righteousness, bringing in the flood on the world of the ungodly; ⁹ then the Lord knows how to deliver the godly out of temptations and to reserve the unjust under punishment for the day of judgment,

Day 5

Draw a picture of the ark resting on a mountain.

In cultures round the world,
many stories have been told.
Of a flood that covered earth
in the days of old.
It was cat-a-stroph-ic,
earth was forever changed.
Mountain tops and valleys
all were rearranged.

What does the verse mean?

Luke 17:26-27: ²⁶ And as it was in the days of Noah, so it will be also in the days of the Son of Man: ²⁷ They ate, they drank, they married wives, they were given in marriage, until the day that Noah entered the ark, and the flood came and destroyed them all.

Day 2

Draw a picture of the ark on the water.

For forty days the rain came down;
it didn't ever stop.
Until the ground was covered up
and every mountain top.
On top of all the water,
the ark it stayed afloat.
Because God designed the ark
to be a special boat.

What does the verse mean?

Genesis 7:17-18: ¹⁷ Now the flood was on the earth forty days. The waters increased and lifted up the ark, and it rose high above the earth. ¹⁸ The waters prevailed and greatly increased on the earth, and the ark moved about on the surface of the waters.

Day 3 Draw a picture of dead animals in the mud.

Everything that at that time
lived upon the land.
Was buried by the water
under piles of dirt and sand.
That is why around the earth
fossils can be found.
As water from the flood quickly wiped things from the ground.

What does the verse mean?

Genesis 7:20-21: ²⁰ The waters prevailed fifteen cubits upward, and the mountains were covered. ²¹ And all flesh died that moved on the earth: birds and cattle and beasts and every creeping thing that creeps on the earth, and every man.

Day 4 Draw a picture of Noah coming off the ark.

Noah and his family,
they survived the flood
Living things not on the ark
were buried deep in mud.
Noah's faith and righteousness
pleased God without a doubt.
While what was dark and evil,
God wiped completely out.

What does the verse mean?

Genesis 7:22-23: ²² All in whose nostrils was the breath of the spirit of life, all that was on the dry land, died. ²³ So He destroyed all living things which were on the face of the ground: both man and cattle, creeping thing and bird of the air. They were destroyed from the earth. Only Noah and those who were with him in the ark remained alive.
