Genesis 41:14-32

<sup>14</sup> So Pharaoh sent for Joseph, and he was quickly brought from the dungeon. When he had shaved and changed his clothes, he came before Pharaoh.

<sup>15</sup> Pharaoh said to Joseph, "I had a dream, and no one can interpret it. But I have heard it said of you that when you hear a dream you can interpret it."

<sup>16</sup> "I cannot do it," Joseph replied to Pharaoh, "but God will give Pharaoh the answer he desires."

<sup>17</sup> Then Pharaoh said to Joseph, "In my dream I was standing on the bank of the Nile, <sup>18</sup> when out of the river there came up seven cows, fat and sleek, and they grazed among the reeds. <sup>19</sup> After them, seven other cows came up—scrawny and very ugly and lean. I had never seen such ugly cows in all the land of Egypt. <sup>20</sup> The lean, ugly cows ate up the seven fat cows that came up first. <sup>21</sup> But even after they ate them, no one could tell that they had done so; they looked just as ugly as before. Then I woke up.

<sup>22</sup> "In my dreams I also saw seven heads of grain, full and good, growing on a single stalk. <sup>23</sup> After them, seven other heads sprouted—withered and thin and scorched by the east wind. <sup>24</sup> The thin heads of grain swallowed up the seven good heads. I told this to the magicians, but none could explain it to me."

<sup>25</sup> Then Joseph said to Pharaoh, "The dreams of Pharaoh are one and the same. God has revealed to Pharaoh what he is about to do. <sup>26</sup> The seven good cows are seven years, and the seven good heads of grain are seven years; it is one and the same dream. <sup>27</sup> The seven lean, ugly cows that came up afterward are seven years, and so are the seven worthless heads of grain scorched by the east wind: They are seven years of famine.

<sup>28</sup> "It is just as I said to Pharaoh: God has shown Pharaoh what he is about to do. <sup>29</sup> Seven years of great abundance are coming throughout the land of Egypt, <sup>30</sup> but seven years of famine will follow them. Then all the abundance in Egypt will be forgotten, and the famine will ravage the land. <sup>31</sup> The abundance in the land will not be remembered, because the famine that follows it will be so severe. <sup>32</sup> The reason the dream was given to Pharaoh in two forms is that the matter has been firmly decided by God, and God will do it soon.

Level 2—Parent Notes:

- Daily Reading: Read the entire booklet to the child. Go back to the appropriate day, reread the content and have the child answer questions about it from the Daily Reading Questions at the back of the booklet. Include personal ideas and additional questions. Read and discuss the daily Bible verse if appropriate for the child. Have the child draw a picture related to the content.
- Lesson Rhyme: Read the Lesson Rhyme on the next page, saying the sound of the letter instead of its name. Point to each word as you read it. Discuss the meaning of the rhyme. Have the child trace the letter with a finger and say its sound. Practice with the child the signs that go along with the Lesson Rhyme (included below). Review and repeat the rhyme every day.
- Concluding Lesson: Complete the activities under Concluding Lesson at the back of the book.
- Completion: If the student brings this booklet back to the teacher on Sunday, with each day's work completed and the lesson rhyme memorized, the student will receive acknowledgement of a job well done.
- Way to go, parents! Your faithfulness in teaching your children the deed and statutes of the Lord isn't always easy, but it honors God and will have an eternal impact. Keep up the good work! Remember Galatians 6:9, Let us not become weary in doing good, for at the proper time we will reap a harvest if we do not give up.

#43

Why did Pharaoh send for Joseph?

f—f—Pharaoh

Had a terrible dream

f—f—Pharaoh

Wondered what it did mean

Day 1

Draw a picture of Joseph in jail.

Joseph was thrown into jail,
though he did nothing wrong
He continued to do right
because to God he did belong.
He was put in charge
of all things in the jail.
Because whatever Joseph did,
he did it very well.

Day 6

Draw a picture of Joseph as the ruler.

Pharaoh then made Joseph
the ruler of his lands.
He put the care of Egypt
into Joseph's righteous hands.
He saw that Joseph's wisdom
came from God above.
As Joseph truly trusted
in God's goodness and his love.

Genesis 39:22-23:<sup>22</sup> So the warden put Joseph in charge of all those held in the prison, and he was made responsible for all that was done there.<sup>23</sup> The warden paid no attention to anything under Joseph's care, because the LORD was with Joseph and gave him success in whatever he did.

Genesis 41:39-40:<sup>39</sup> Then Pharaoh said to Joseph, "Since God has made all this known to you, there is no one so discerning and wise as you."<sup>40</sup> You shall be in charge of my palace, and all my people are to submit to your orders. Only with respect to the throne will I be greater than you."

Day 5

Draw a picture of seven cows.

Pharaoh then told Joseph
of his terrible dream.
And Joseph learned from God
what the dream did mean.
Seven cows and heads of grain
growing on a stem.
Meant 7 years of great abundance
God would give to them.
Seven years would follow
when food they couldn't grow.
Pharaoh's dreams and what they meant to Joseph God did show.

Genesis 41:29-30:<sup>29</sup> Seven years of great abundance are coming throughout the land of Egypt,<sup>30</sup> but seven years of famine will follow them. Then all the abundance in Egypt will be forgotten, and the famine will ravage the land.

Day 2

Draw a picture of Pharaoh's servants.

To the prison Pharaoh sent two of his servants there.
Pharaoh's baker and his cupbearer
were put under Joseph's care.
Then one night both servants
had a dream that caused them grief.
Joseph knew the meaning,
which to the cupbearer brought relief.

Genesis 40:8:<sup>8</sup> "We both had dreams," they answered, "but there is no one to interpret them." Then Joseph said to them, "Do not interpretations belong to God? Tell me your dreams."

Day 3 Draw a picture of Joseph and the cupbearer.

The cupbearer was restored to the job that he once had.
But the baker lost his life
as Pharaoh deemed him bad.
Joseph asked the cupbearer
to get him out of jail.
But he didn't help out Joseph,
he just left him in his cell.

Genesis 40:21-23: <sup>21</sup> He restored the chief cupbearer to his position, so that he once again put the cup into Pharaoh's hand, <sup>22</sup> but he hanged the chief baker, just as Joseph had said to them in his interpretation. <sup>23</sup> The chief cupbearer, however, did not remember Joseph; he forgot him.

Day 4 Draw a picture of Joseph going to Pharaoh.

However, after two years
Pharaoh had a dream,
There was no one he could find
to tell what it did mean.
The cupbearer was reminded of what Joseph did in jail.
And that the meaning of a dream
Joseph sure could tell.
So Pharaoh sent for Joseph
to come into his home.
Joseph had to bathe and shave
to come before the throne.

Genesis 41:15-16: <sup>15</sup> Pharaoh said to Joseph, "I had a dream, and no one can interpret it. But I have heard it said of you that when you hear a dream you can interpret it." <sup>16</sup> "I cannot do it," Joseph replied to Pharaoh, "but God will give Pharaoh the answer he desires."
