Jacob and Esau

Isaac's wife Rebekah couldn't have children but when Isaac prayed for her she became pregnant with twins. While the twins were growing in her womb God told her that the older one would serve the younger one. Esau was born first and then Jacob came out holding on to his heel.

One day Esau came home really hungry while Jacob was cooking some stew. Jacob got Esau to sell him his birthright of the firstborn for a bowl of stew. Esau did what he wanted rather than what God wanted.

Color in and name the vegetables that could have been in the stew.
