How was Jesus dedicated to God?

Page 2

To present their son before the Lord,
they had to pay a price.

So they bought two pigeons
to present as a sacrifice.

They dedicated Jesus
to their Lord God up above.

Fulfilling God's commands
to show devotion and their love.

While they were in the temple,

Simeon came to them.

He had been God's servant,

seeking the salvation of all men.

God said that Simeon wouldn't die

before the Savior came.

God showed him Jesus was the one

who'd take away men's shame.

Page 4

Simeon spoke a prophecy

that Jesus was the light.

He would lead all men to God

and what is good and right.

Mary and Joseph wondered about all that Simeon said.

Mary kept his prophecy

within her heart and head.

Anna was a widow,

who worked in the temple there.

Night and day she served the Lord

with devoted care.

She also came up to them,

giving thanks to God above,

For sending Jesus to the earth

to show his grace and love.

Later when God told them to,

to Nazareth they went back.

Probably riding on a donkey,

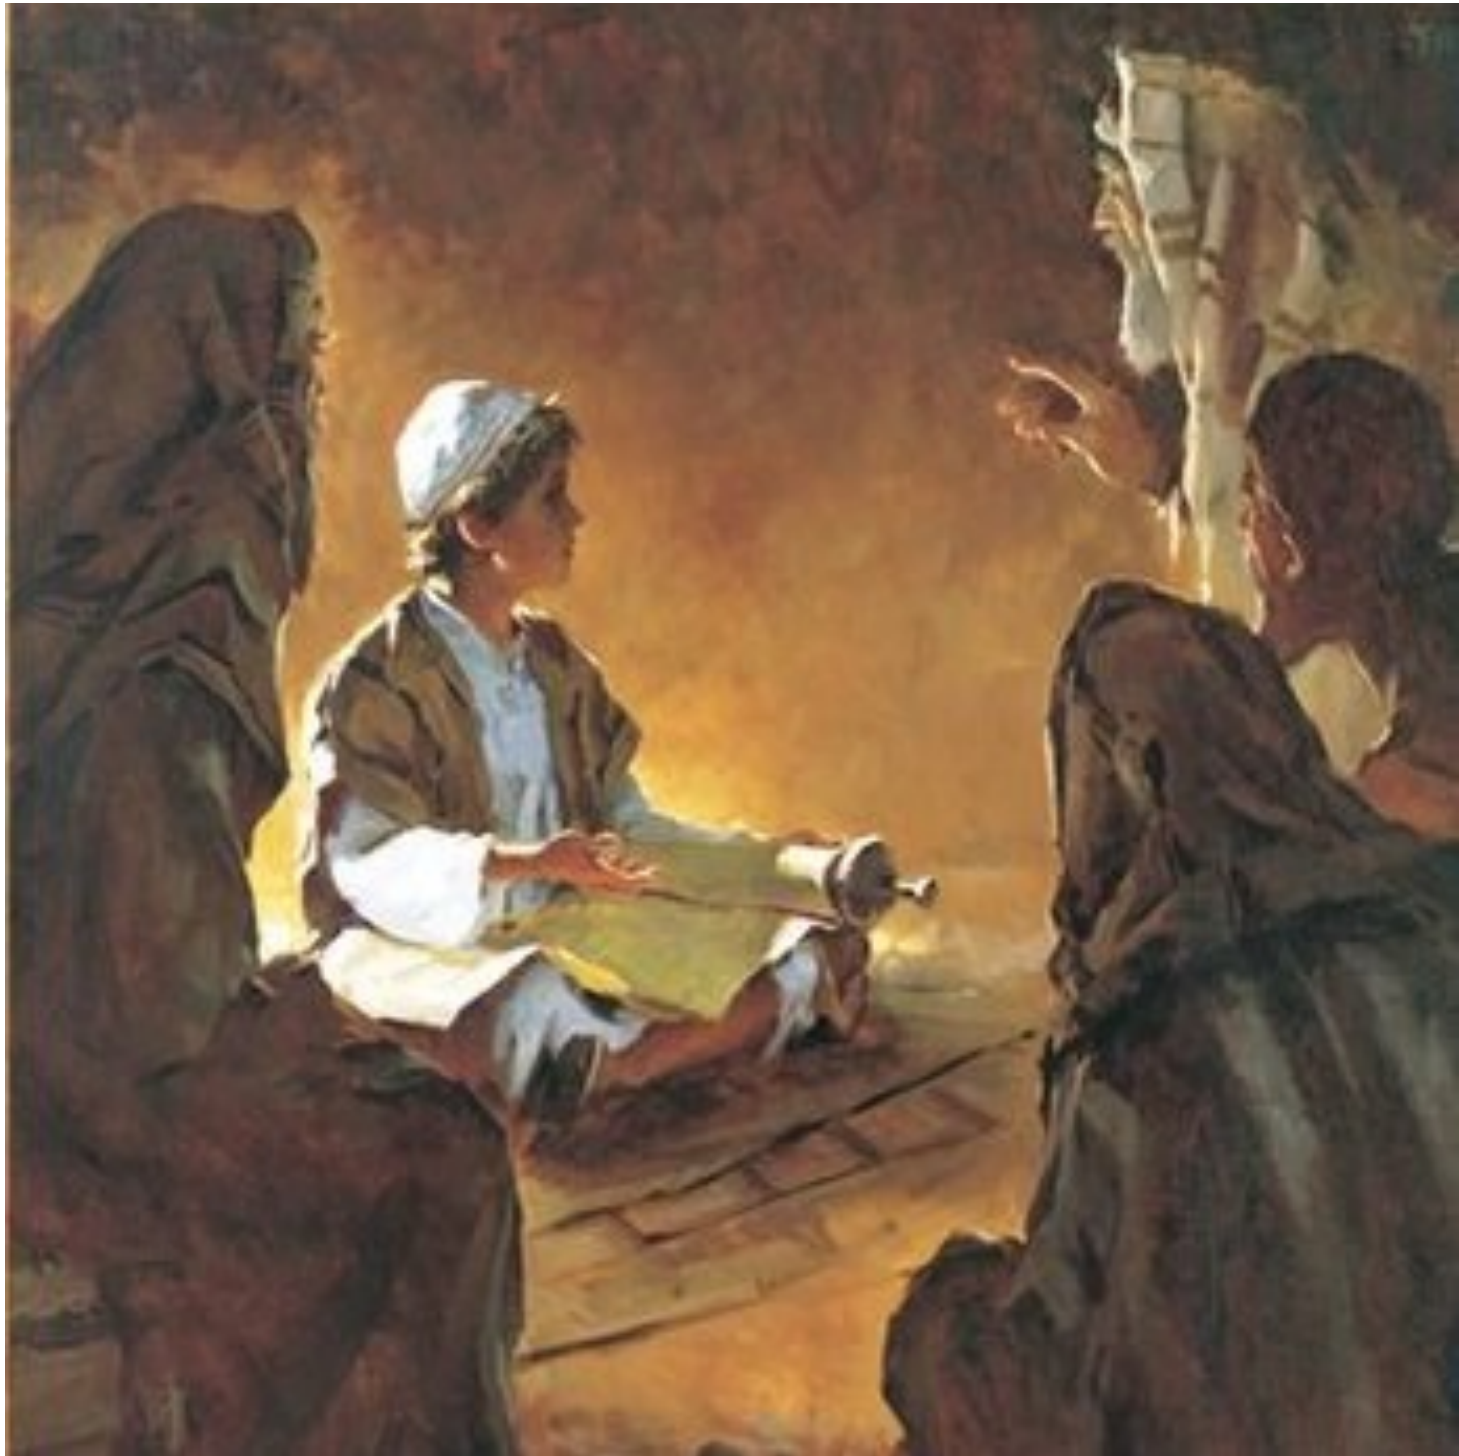

and carrying Jesus in a pack.

Their home, the town of Nazareth,

the people did despise.

But there the Son of God would grow,

learning all that made him wise.

The Jews they are God's people
and when a baby's born,
They do what God commanded,
the things to which they're sworn.

Jesus' parents had him circumcised
when he was eight days old.

They took him to Jerusalem to complete what they'd been told.
