- ⇒ Daily Journal: Each day read the Scripture and discuss what it means. Then read the poem and have the child answer questions about it from the Daily Reading Questions. Include personal ideas and additional questions. Under the daily poem have the child draw a picture related to the content or dictate a sentence about what it means.
- ⇒ Lesson Rhyme: Read the Lesson Rhyme on the front page, saying the sound of the letter instead of its name. Point to each word as you read it. Discuss the meaning of the rhyme. Review and repeat the rhyme every day using the Lesson Rhyme Signs.
- ⇒ Concluding Lesson: Complete the activities under Concluding Lesson in the booklet.
- ⇒ Completion: If the student brings this booklet back to the teacher on Sunday, with each day's work completed and the lesson rhyme memorized, the student will receive acknowledgement of a job well done.
- ⇒ Way to go, parents! Your faithfulness in teaching your children the deeds and statutes of the Lord isn't always easy, but it honors God and will have an eternal impact. Keep up the good work! Remember Galatians 6:9, Let us not become weary in doing good, for at the proper time we will reap a harvest if we do not give up. NIV

DAILY JOURNAL 2—Who is John the Baptist?

Day 1—Luke 1:76-77

God said he'd send a prophet before the coming of his Son,
To announce the Savior's coming,
before his work'd begun.
John was the chosen prophet to proclaim Christ's work on earth.
And there were many signs,
attending to his birth.

Day 2—Luke 1:5-6

Zechariah and Elizabeth followed in God's way.
The commands that God had spoken,
they wanted to obey.
Even though they loved God,
their lives still lacked of joy,
Because they were not given a little girl or boy.

Day 3—Luke 1:7-9

They thought they'd never have a child,
as they were then quite old.
But to God they still were faithful to do what they were told.
Zechariah was a priest;
in the temple he had served.
One day he was on duty,
when he became unnerved.

Day 4—Luke 1:11-13

Gabriel came before him,
full of glory did appear.
Zechariah was quite shaken and his heart was gripped with fear.
The angel said his prayers were heard and he would have a boy.
His son would go before the Lord to bring great news of joy.

Day 5—Luke 1:18-20

Zechariah thought this couldn't be,
his wife was very old.
And so he questioned Gabriel and what he had been told.
The angel said he wouldn't speak until all this came to be.
Because he doubted Gabriel,
his words did not believe.

Day 6—Luke 1:23-25

Going back to his home,
Elizabeth conceived and then gave birth.
Their son would be the prophet
God said he'd send to earth.
John would go before the Lord to prepare the hearts of men.
He would announce Christ's coming and the need to turn from sin.
