

NAME

Level 3—Parent Notes

- ⇒ Daily Journal: Each day read the Scripture and discuss what it means. Then read the poem and have the child answer questions about it from the Daily Reading Questions. Include personal ideas and additional questions. Under the daily poem have the child draw a picture related to the content or write a sentence about what it means.
- ⇒ Lesson Verse: The lesson verse which answers the week's big question should be practiced daily. One way to do this is to black out words in the verse each day and repeat the verse inserting the correct word. By the end of the week the whole verse would be blacked out and recited by memory. Depending on the age and/or ability of the child, either the whole verse or the part of the verse between brackets on the cover can be memorized.
- ⇒ Concluding Lesson: Complete the activities under the Concluding Lesson. In the booklet.
- ⇒ Completion: If the student brings this booklet back to the teacher on Sunday, with each day's work completed and the lesson verse memorized, the student will receive acknowledgement of a job well done.
- ⇒ Way to go, parents! Your faithfulness in teaching your children the deeds and statutes of the Lord isn't always easy, but it honors God and will have an eternal impact. Keep up the good work! Remember Galatians 6:9, Let us not become weary in doing good, for at the proper time we will reap a harvest if we do not give up. NIV

DAILY JOURNAL 7 — Who did John the Baptist baptize?

Day 1— Luke 3:2b-4

John the Baptist God had chosen to prepare the hearts of men.
He came to warn the people of God's judgment of their sin.
Before God sent the Savior,
a prophet would prepare the way.
To turn hearts back to God
so his will men would obey.

Day 2—Luke 3:7-8a

John, he spoke quite harshly;
he called the people snakes.
He said their hearts were evil,
that's why they made mistakes.
There were those who heard him preach and asked,
"What should we do?
He said, "Turn away from sin and do what's right and true."

Day 3—Luke 3:11,13,14b

Those who collected taxes were not to take too much,
And soldiers with great power,
the things of others should not touch.
To the poor each person should be generous and kind.
As they'd share with others,
contentment they would find.

Day 4—Luke 3:15-16

John would baptize in the river
those who came to him.
Telling them to do what's good and turn away from sin.
He said that God would send the one,
more powerful than he.
The presence of God's Spirit, in him the people'd see.

Day 5—Luke 3:21-22

Jesus came to John one day to be baptized in the river.
It was an amazing moment,
setting people's hearts a quiver.
In the form of a dove,
the Holy Spirit came.
Upon his one and only Son,
God's Spirit did remain.
With power God spoke down to the people from above.
Saying, "This is my beloved Son, whom I do truly love."

Day 6—John 1:32-34

Our God he is eternal:
Father, Spirit, Son
Although he is three persons,
he is really only one.
To the Father we should give our heart and mind and soul.
Filled with his Spirit, love his Son, should be our lifelong goal.
