

Who should we choose to follow?

Page 2

When we obey the Bible,
we show we love God's Son
We put our faith in Jesus
and all that he has done.
When we sin we have the Son
to speak in our defense.
And the Father listens to him,
as he's paid sin's consequence.

Page 3

We show we love God's Son

when we choose to love our brother.

But God's love isn't in us

when we fight with one another.

And if we follow Satan

and God we don't obey.

We will hurt each other

by the things we do and say.

Page 4

We're not to love the world
and the things that pass away.
As when we love what doesn't last
with God we will not stay.
The world and all that's in it,
will one day disappear,
But God will last forever,
so to him we must stay near.

Page 5

Remember on the cross,

with his life Christ paid the price.

We are forgiven for our sin

through his loving sacrifice.

Our choice of whom we love

in our life is evident.

So we must follow Jesus

and from our sin repent.

Page 6

The choice is set before you to seek after good or bad.

If you set your heart on God,
you'll be really glad.

If you choose to love God's Son,
you're on a path of light.

You will show God's truth is in you,
by doing what is right.

Page 1

There are two paths and we will choose which one we want to follow.

One will lead to what is good;
the other leads to sorrow.

If we choose to love God's Son,
we're on a path of light.

We're forgiven for our sin
and empowered to do right.

Who should we choose to follow?

ch—ch	Make sign of "C"
Choose	1st two fingers of left hand up, with right hand "C" pick left index finger
The path that's full of light	Move right hand like a path in front Hands up, palms forward, fingers spread out, move up
ch—ch—Choose	Same as above
To love God and do right	Lift arms in air Thumbs up sign