What have we been called to do?

Page 2

We're not to focus on the things that are valued here on earth.

But instead on things eternal that have much greater worth.

That means we don't seek money
to buy lots of fancy things.

Instead we share with others and reap the joy that brings.

Page 3

We're called to think of others in all we choose to do.

Our thoughts about ourselves should really be quite few.

We speak the truth of Jesus everywhere we go.

And we live in such a way that God's love we always show.

Page 4

The path we're called to follow is not an easy one.

But treasure we will store up
if God's will is done.

There are many who'll reject us
and treat us really wrong.

But we're faithful to live rightly and in Jesus we stay strong.

Page 5

When we suffer here on earth to heaven we can look.

God tells us it's a better place.

He says that in his Book.

Doing what the Father wants should always fill our mind,

Staying close to Jesus

so to others we are kind.

Page 6

Cheerfully we do what's right as Christ is Lord of all.

Knowing that in serving him,
we fulfill our call.

So follow Jesus here on earth and live life really well.

Into to heaven he has called us,
where one day we will dwell.

Page 1

If we believe in Jesus,

he has called us by his name.

We live our life for him.

We don't want to bring him shame.

That means we look to Jesus and the Father up above.

As we're called to live like him and show the world his love.

What have we been called to do?

C—C	Make sign of "C"
Called	Beckon with hand
To look to	Point to eyes, look up
God above	Lift arms in air
C—C—Called	Same as above
To show the world	Arms above head in circle
his love	Hands crossed over heart
