

NAME

Level 3—Parent Notes

- ⇒ Daily Journal: Each day read the Scripture and discuss what it means. Then read the poem and have the child answer questions about it from the Daily Reading Questions. Include personal ideas and additional questions. Under the daily poem have the child draw a picture related to the content or write a sentence about what it means.
- ⇒ Lesson Verse: The lesson verse which answers the week's big question should be practiced daily. One way to do this is to black out words in the verse each day and repeat the verse inserting the correct word. By the end of the week the whole verse would be blacked out and recited by memory. Depending on the age and/or ability of the child, either the whole verse or the part of the verse between brackets on the cover can be memorized.
- ⇒ Concluding Lesson: Complete the activities under the Concluding Lesson. In the booklet.
- ⇒ Completion: If the student brings this booklet back to the teacher on Sunday, with each day's work completed and the lesson verse memorized, the student will receive acknowledgement of a job well done.
- ⇒ Way to go, parents! Your faithfulness in teaching your children the deeds and statutes of the Lord isn't always easy, but it honors God and will have an eternal impact. Keep up the good work! Remember Galatians 6:9, Let us not become weary in doing good, for at the proper time we will reap a harvest if we do not give up. NIV

DAILY JOURNAL 22— What have we been called to?

Day 1— Colossians 3:2-4

If we believe in Jesus,
he has called us by his name.
We live our life for him.
We don't want to bring him shame.
That means we look to Jesus
and the Father up above.
As we're called to live like him
and show the world his love.

Day 2—Matthew 6:19-20

We're not to focus on the things that are valued here on earth.
But instead on things eternal that have much greater worth.
That means we don't seek money
to buy lots of fancy things.
Instead we share with others and reap the joy that brings.

Day 3—1 Corinthians 10:31-33

We're called to think of others
in all we choose to do.
Our thoughts about ourselves should really be quite few.
We speak the truth of Jesus
everywhere we go.
And we live in such a way that God's love we always show.

Day 4—Matthew 5:11-12

The path we're called to follow
is not an easy one.
But treasure we will store up
if God's will is done.
There are many who'll reject us
and treat us really wrong.
But if we're faithful to live rightly in Jesus we'll stay strong.

Day 5—Matthew 5:10

When we suffer here on earth
to heaven we can look.
God tells us it's a better place.
He says that in his Book.
Doing what the Father wants
should always fill our mind,
Staying close to Jesus,
so to others we are kind.

Day 6—1 Timothy 6:11-12

Cheerfully we do what's right
as Christ is Lord of all.
Knowing that in serving him,
we fulfill our call.
So follow Jesus here on earth
and live life really well.
Into to heaven he has called us,
where one day we will dwell.
